Monoï tiaré

Pleasant massage made with Monoï Tiaré, oil extracted from Thai Gardenia, which keeps the skin hydrated and nourished for a long time, and which accelerates and prolongs the tan.

In Polynesian language Monoï means scented oil, obtained with the combination of coconut and tiaré flower (gardenia taitensis). Coconut pulp is dried under the sun and then processed to extract the precious oil with its own softening, smoothing and protective characteristics. In the obtained oil tiaré flowers are put to macerate. They are the emblem of Tahiti and the characteristic ornament for the Polynesian women.
